

TEIN Annual Conference

Assessing impact across borders

(incorporating the Centre for Cross Border Studies' Annual Brussels Policy Seminar)

Thursday 10 October 2019

Maastricht University Campus, Brussels | Avenue de Tervueren 153 | 1150 Brussels | Belgium

9:00 Welcome and registration

9:15 Effects on cross-border territories: The blind spot of regulatory impact assessment

Introduction by Martin Unfried, Senior Researcher, Maastricht University – ITEM (Institute for Transnational and Euregional cross border cooperation and Mobility). Presentation and debate of the background, methodology and experiences of the cross-border impact assessment conducted by Maastricht University.

10:00 The need for Regulatory impact assessment: Challenges at the Ireland-Northern Ireland border

Anthony Soares, Acting Director, Centre for Cross Border Studies
Debate on the future needs for a structured regulatory impact assessment concerning consequences of Brexit.

10:30 Impact assessment: What do stakeholders in cross-border regions need to know - The perspective from the Italian-Slovenian border

Ramona Velea, Researcher and Project Manager, ISIG (Istituto di Sociologia Internazionale di Gorizia).

10:45 The future of regulatory impact assessment for cross-border territories: What is the role for the national and regional level?

Debate on the practical steps to organise impact assessment with regional stakeholders and cross-border entities.

11:00 End of the conference

Coffee break.

REGISTRATION via:

https://www.aanmelder.nl/teinannualconference/subscribe?survey_id=102728